CITY INFORMATION

The modern city is located on the plain extending from the Lake Van, at a distance of 5 kilometres (3 miles) from the lake shore.

Van has often been called "The Pearl of the East" because of the beauty of its surrounding landscape. An old Armenian proverb in the same sense is "Van in this world, paradise in the next." This phrase has been slightly modified in Turkish as dünyada Van, ahirette iman or "Van for this world, faith for the next."

Van has its own cat with different eyes colors. One is blue and the other is yellow.

There are some islands in Van Lake and one of these Islands called Akdamar Island has its own church and landscape.

In winter Van offers its visitors a way of Ski on high mountains.
